

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses Quiz

Combine each pair of sentences into one sentence using an appropriate relative pronoun. Use one of these pronouns: who, whom, which, that, whose. Some sentences may be combined in more than one way.

1. She is a leader. She is respected by everyone.

2. Bees are insects. They have six legs.

3. We are responsible for animals. We keep them as pets.

4. Athens is a city. Its historical sites attract tourists.

5. Ben is a cyclist. He has made his country famous.

6. This is the city. We like the city most in Europe.

7. We met the journalists. They reported the Olympic Games.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses Quiz

Combine each pair of sentences into one sentence using an appropriate relative pronoun. Use one of these pronouns: who, whom, which, that, whose. Some sentences may be combined in more than one way.

8. I feel sorry for the people. Their houses were swept away by the floods.

9. I'm going to meet the girl. I used to hate her.

10. He returned the chocolate box. Its expiry date has passed.

11. Teachers usually like the students. They ask smart questions during class.

12. You need to eat food. It keeps you healthy.

13. This sweater was knitted by a woman. She is 70 years old.

14. He is the boy. His father is a soldier.

15. I currently work with a man. I taught him at university.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses Quiz

Answer Key

1. She is a leader who (or that) is respected by everyone.
2. Bees are insects which (or that) have six legs.
3. We are responsible for animals which (or that or Ø) we keep as pets.
4. Athens is a city whose historical sites attract tourists.
5. Ben is a cyclist who (or that) has made his country famous.
6. This is the city which (or that or Ø) we like most in Europe.
7. We met the journalists who (or that) reported the Olympic Games.
8. I feel sorry for the people whose houses were swept away by the floods.
9. I'm going to meet the girl who (or whom or that or Ø) I used to hate.
10. He returned the chocolate box whose expiry date has passed.
11. Teachers usually like the students who (or that) ask smart questions during class.
12. You need to eat food which (or that) keeps you healthy.
13. This sweater was knitted by a woman who (or that) is 70 years old.
14. He is the boy whose father is a soldier.
15. I currently work with a man who (or whom or that or Ø) I taught at university.