

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses & Relative Pronouns Quiz

Choose the sentence that best combines each of the following pairs of sentences.

1. We met Mr. Larry. He is our team leader.

- A. We met Mr. Larry, whom is our team leader.
- B. We met Mr. Larry who is our team leader.
- C. We met Mr. Larry, who is our team leader.

2. The restaurant was amazing. We had dinner at the restaurant last night.

- A. The restaurant where we had dinner last night was amazing.
- B. The restaurant which we had dinner last night was amazing.
- C. The restaurant was amazing we had dinner at which last night.

3. He works in a factory. The factory manufactures furniture.

- A. He works in a factory, which manufactures furniture.
- B. He works in a factory whose manufactures furniture.
- C. He works in a factory that manufactures furniture.

4. This is the book. I read it several times.

- A. This is the book whom I read several times.
- B. This is the book I read several times.
- C. This is the book which I read it several times.

5. I will introduce you to the woman. I work with her.

- A. I will introduce you to the woman with whom I work.
- B. I will introduce you to the woman I work with whom.
- C. I will introduce you to the woman with who I work.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses & Relative Pronouns Quiz

Choose the sentence that best combines each of the following pairs of sentences.

6. He was a famous artist. He drew many impressive paintings.

- A. He was a famous artist whom drew many impressive paintings.
- B. He was a famous artist. Who drew many impressive paintings.
- C. He was a famous artist who drew many impressive paintings.

7. When are you going to fix the chairs? The chairs are in the basement.

- A. When are you going to fix the chairs who are in the basement?
- B. When are you going to fix the chairs which are in the basement?
- C. When are you going to fix the chairs they are in the basement?

8. They live in Berlin. It is the capital of Germany.

- A. They live in Berlin, that is the capital of Germany.
- B. They live in Berlin, which is the capital of Germany.
- C. They live in Berlin which is the capital of Germany.

9. I love movies. They have complex plots.

- A. I love movies which have complex plots.
- B. I love movies who have complex plots.
- C. I love movies, that have complex plots.

10. They want to move to a house. Its rooms are large enough.

- A. They want to move to a house whose its rooms are large enough.
- B. They want to move to a house which rooms are large enough.
- C. They want to move to a house whose rooms are large enough.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses & Relative Pronouns Quiz

Choose the sentence that best combines each of the following pairs of sentences.

11. The guide speaks five languages. She took us around the city.
- A. The guide speaks five languages who took us around the city.
 - B. The guide who took us around the city speaks five languages.
 - C. The guide whom took us around the city speaks five languages.
12. The teacher has resigned. He used to teach me physics.
- A. The teacher who used to teach me physics has resigned.
 - B. The teacher has resigned who used to teach me physics.
 - C. The teacher who he used to teach me physics has resigned.
13. I forgot the name of the store. I had bought my phone from it.
- A. I forgot the name of the store from that I had bought my phone.
 - B. I forgot the name of the store which I had bought my phone.
 - C. I forgot the name of the store from which I had bought my phone.
14. This is the kitchen set toy. I want to buy it for my daughter.
- A. This is the kitchen set toy which I want to buy it for my daughter.
 - B. This is the kitchen set toy I want to buy it for my daughter.
 - C. This is the kitchen set toy I want to buy for my daughter.
15. We met the journalist. He wrote this report.
- A. We met the journalist that wrote this report.
 - B. We met the journalist he wrote this report.
 - C. We met the journalist who he wrote this report.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade & Section: _____

Teacher: _____

Relative Clauses & Relative Pronouns Quiz

Answer Key

1. C. We met Mr. Larry, who is our team leader.
2. A. The restaurant where we had dinner last night was amazing.
3. C. He works in a factory that manufactures furniture.
4. B. This is the book I have read several times.
5. A. I will introduce you to the woman with whom I work.
6. C. He was a famous artist who drew many impressive paintings.
7. B. When are you going to fix the chairs which are in the basement?
8. B. They live in Berlin, which is the capital of Germany.
9. A. I love movies which have complex plots.
10. C. They want to move to a house whose rooms are large enough.
11. B. The guide who took us around the city speaks five languages.
12. A. The teacher who used to teach me physics has resigned.
13. C. I forgot the name of the store from which I had bought my phone.
14. C. This is the kitchen set toy I want to buy for my daughter.
15. A. We met the journalist that wrote this report.